acc. ms. 1935.4.

90. Gloucester Place,
Portman Square. W.

London
February 8th 1896

Dear Mr Bernstein,

I send you under another cover (by registered letter-post) — "His Wife" neatly typewritten, and with all the last corrections. This is the only copy in shape to be presented. We appear at the Globe Theatre here at Easter. It is quite another piece that I am writing for

30. Gloucester Place.
Portman Square. W.

the Prince of Wales's Theatre. Only the first act is Done of this work.

Let me know that you have got "Mrs Tanqueray" and believe me — with kindest regards from all of us
— Yours truly
Wilkie Collins

I am very glad to hear that the plays and the stars are both liked in America.
I am woman when I never heard of in my life! Theatres & Dramatic "Clubs"!
Two doctrines
I write by this mail to both her.

Wilkie Collins
London 8. Dec 76

STAATS-BIBLIOTHEK
· BERLIN ·